

SCHS JV vs Talladega Post Game Analysis

January 18, 2021

Positive Take Aways from Talladega Because the Negative Ones are Obvious

Broke the Press Well: We were patient getting the ball across half-court line when we were able to identify what type of press they were running. Press Break 3 was executed well.

Players that Played Well:

- Kobin has consistently scored more points the past few games. In comparison to earlier in the season, I trust him a lot more now to score the ball when he gets it on the block. His rebounding skills have improved greatly as well, as he had (by my rough estimate) somewhere in the ballpark of 8 Rebounds vs Talladega.
- Cason has proved down the stretch that he is willing to hustle to try and make plays. Excluding a rough game vs Clay, he has been one of the more consistent players at making layups. More importantly, he is willing to box out when a shot goes up. If he does not grab the board, he makes sure his guy doesn't grab it either.

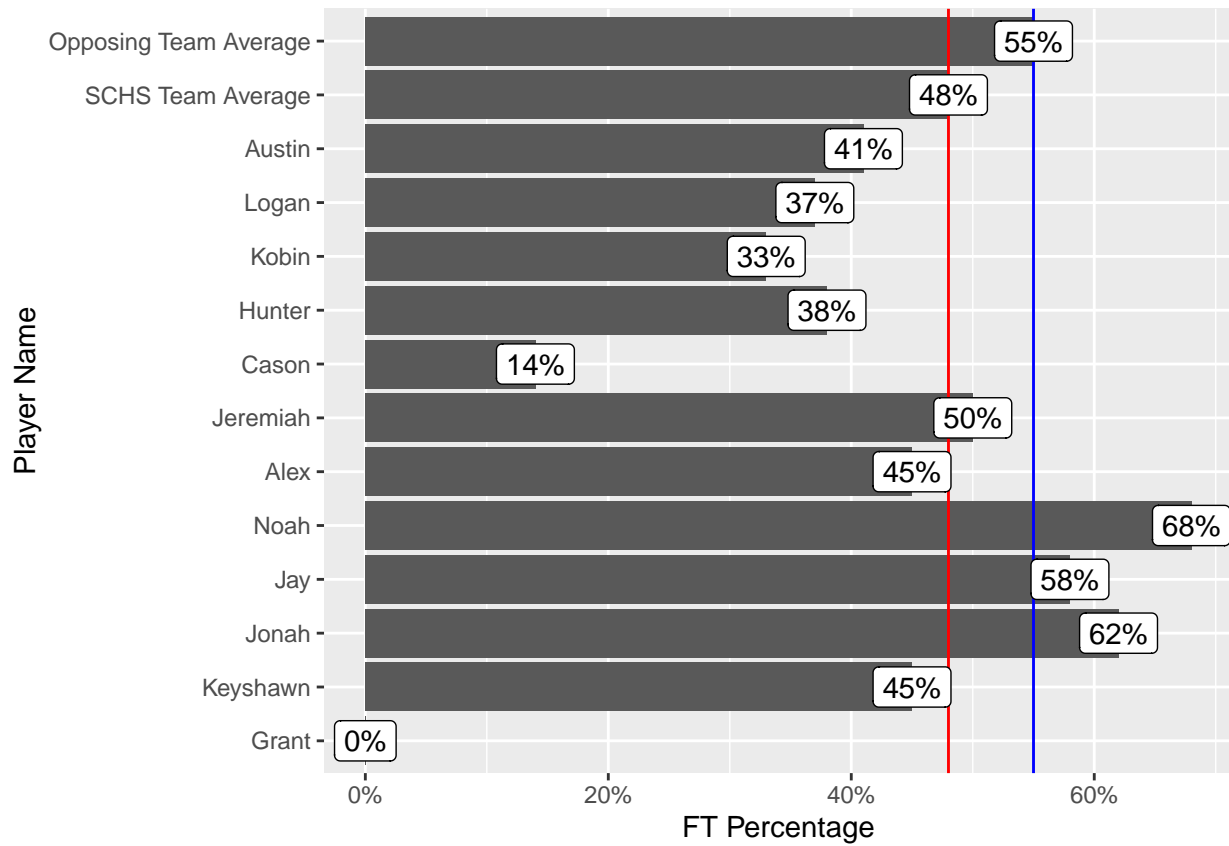

Looking Ahead to Vincent

Beware of Their Bigs: Typically, Vincent likes to run a play where they screen with one big for their other big on the block. We have to play around the big man to prevent the post feed.

Have Fun: We just need a game to relax and play loose. We've played 5 area games in a row which is hard, so we need a non-area game (even when area doesn't matter for JV).

Rivalry: Despite needing a relaxing game, we want to beat Vincent. This rivalry is blood deep especially in our black community. We're more than due to beat them and this is the perfect year to finally get one on Varsity, and probably on JV. Nothing makes SCHS's older fans happier than beating Vincent and Montevallo.

Season Free Throw Stats

- Our opponents are shooting 7% better than us from the free throw line.
- Since Jan 1, our opponents have gained 2.8 points per game on us at the free throw line.

FT Percentages in Games Since January 1

